Dr. Ann Grider

MD, FACOG

Dr. Grider grew up in Columbia, KY, and completed her undergraduate degree at Centre College. She received her medical degree from the University of Louisville School of Medicine in 1994 and completed her residency in Obstetrics & Gynecology at the University of Cincinnati, joining Women First in 1998.

Dr. Grider is board certified in Obstetrics & Gynecology and is a fellow in the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. She is a member of the Kentucky Medical Association, the Society of Laparoendoscopic Surgeons, the Jefferson County Medical Society, and the Louisville Obstetrics and Gynecology Society.

“I love all the facets of OB/GYN because I get to do a little bit of everything—I get to do procedures, perform operations, and experience the miracle of childbirth. Best of all, I get to form long-term relationships with people on a level that few others do.”
